How to Order Your Railpass

- Choose the pass that best fits your trip. Study your options throughout Rick Steves' Guide to Eurail Passes, and use the handy Time & Cost map to see if a railpass will save you money compared to buying tickets as-you-go.
- Pass prices are subject to change without notice. Please review current fares at www.ricksteves.com before sending a check. Note that mail/fax orders may not be ticketed on the same date received. If pass prices have changed since printing, you will be charged the current rate.
- If you still have many questions before you can select a pass, check out our trip consulting services.
- Once you've decided on a railpass and have read these instructions, complete our 2-page Railpass Order Form. Please fill out the form completely. Print extra copies of page 1 if necessary. You can attach as many pages of ticket and traveler information as needed to your shipping and payment page. Be sure to include your check or credit card information for payment.
- You can order your railpasses online, it's fast, easy and secure. Or, fax or mail your order. You may fax us your order (both forms, please!), or mail it to us. You may also write out your top three travel/itinerary questions on a single page for our comments, and fax or enclose them with your order.
- Look forward to all you'll get. Within 5 business days from the day your order arrives at ETBD you'll receive your railpass via UPS. The shipping fee for your whole rail order is $15 to the US or Canada. With your pass you'll also find: (1) important instructions for using your pass (2) the rail map and timetable specific to your pass (not available for BritRail); (3) a Rick Steves' Travel Store discount coupon. Orders that arrive by fax or mail get a coupon returned with their order. If you buy your railpass in person at our Travel Center, we'll issue it on the spot. Sorry, but we cannot ship rail-passes to APO/FPO addresses or beyond the 50 United States and Canada.
- Make sure you order the right pass for your trip. Changes, exchanges or refunds for unused passes are not always possible, and are subject to a service charge of 15% or more.

Important Railpass Fine Print

Itinerary advice: For more detailed advice, please refer to our consulting services.

Selectpass countries: Selectpasses are good for use only in the countries listed on your pass. You must choose your countries at the time you buy your pass. Be aware of your route! If you travel through a country not covered by your pass, and you have not purchased separate tickets to cover that portion of your trip, you will be fined!

Saverpasses & Twinpasses: All members of the traveling group must be identified and paid for at the time of purchase, and they must all be present when validating their Saverpass in Europe. A Saverpass is a single pass listing 2-5 travelers. For groups of four or more, please indicate who will be traveling together. A Twinpass is limited to 2 travelers per pass, so a third group member pays full price.

Youthpasses: Pass users must be under age 26 the day they validate their pass in Europe. There are no "saver" discounts for Youthpass users traveling together.

Kids: For most passes, kids 4-11 pay half the adult price, under 4 travel free.

Country of Residence: Citizens of European countries are required to provide proof of non-European residence (and non Russian Federation or Turkish residence) when validating most railpasses. A few passes require proof of non-residence in the countries covered by that pass (Balkan, BritRail, European East, and Swiss).

Railpass Insurance: Railpasses are not replaceable if lost or stolen, so your best insurance is to treat your pass like cash, keeping it inside your moneybelt, tucked under your clothes. You may purchase insurance which reimburses you for the value of the unused part of your railpass in case of loss or theft—just add the cost below to your railpass order (we cannot sell it to you later). Prices are: $17 for a single-person, single-country pass; $19 for a single-person, multi-country regional pass; $22 for a single-person Eurail Global or Select pass; $30 for any multi-person Saver Pass, Twin Pass, or Party Pass. This non-refundable insurance does not get you a new pass in Europe! It does enable you to file a reimbursement claim with Rail Europe after your trip. You will receive full details and claim requirements with your pass.

Reservations: Sorry, ETBD does not sell reservations. With your railpass, you can make reservations through www.raileurope.com (800-438-7245) or at train stations and travel agencies in Europe. Details will come with your pass.

Rail & Drive Passes: See Rail & Drive page for prices and an order phone number. We do not sell Rail & Drive passes.

More Fine Print: This is not meant to be a complete explanation of all restrictions and requirements. Carefully read all the information that comes with your pass!
